Reading Faerie I read it when I was nine, and I adored it. All had that 19th century down home feeling with wonderful, memorable characters.

To contemporary readers, this may seem like a lot, but the heavy-handed it is not.

novel's ideas do not intrude themselves upon the reader because the author is wholly in control of the implications of her imaginative structure. Jo might be the star of the show with her forthright mind and joie de vivre but Beth should never be discounted!!
