I would say this is probably one of my favourite reads of the year so far, and I would highly recommend it to anyone who has a sense of humour. Carpet Diem is about Simon, a man who dislikes other people and has chosen to live the life of a hermit, whose life is very much changed when he is rudely interrupted by someone ringing his broken doorbell.

A Hebrew legend Jane—the fourth child in the family. The characters are fairly well developed and some evolve over the course of the book. In Shaikh Muhammad ibn Yahya al-Tadifi al-Hanbali's book of wonders, Qala'id-al-Jawahir "Necklaces of Gems" Shaikh Abdul-Qadir Gilani walks on the water of the River Tigris then an enormous prayer rug sajjada appears in the sky above, "as if it were the flying carpet of Solomon [bisat Sulaiman]". They give him a day to think about it and promise to come back the next day to make their offers but overnight the carpet is stolen.
