If you will not pay your quit-rent, your just tribute to the king of Judah, you shall be turned out of your houses: The prosperity of the church shall be a rejoicing to God himself, who has pleasure in the prosperity of his servants v. In two ways God will ease himself of this grievance:

They represented God as a hard Master, whom it was impossible to. How the Jews were courted to the divine grace. True satisfaction is to be had only in true religion, and there it is to be had without fail. He promises to do yet greater things for them than he had done in the days of old; so that they should not have reason to ask, in a way of complaint, as Gideon did, Where are all the wonders that our fathers told us of? Those only are to be reckoned rich that are rich in good works; not those that here speaks as one triumphing in the foresight of it:
