Hillary Clinton takes aim at Trump in scathing new essay. Judges give standard directions to the jury when summing up, but at least some jurors did not realise these were standard. He has not released transcripts of those interviews. Levenson said part of the problem has been the pace of the trial, which often has left jurors with "nothing to do but get on each others nerves. Another juror who dressed in black is a year-old white woman who complained The Juror Hangs needed air and opened a window in a van, according to Harris, who interpreted that to mean she couldn't "breathe the same air" as the black woman seated beside . These include more guidance for jury foremen, providing the jury with a writt
