Also distinctive in Maritain's account of metaphysics is the emphasis on "the act of existing. No keywords specified fix it.

The intuition of being that lies at the root of metaphysical enquiry is not "this is concurrent with a "spontaneous reasoning" that follows the same course to the conclusion that there is "another Whole [...] another Being, transcendent and self-sufficient and unknown in itself and activating all beings [...] that is, self-subsisting Being, Being existing through itself"

Approches de Dieu. Les fondements thomistes du personalisme de Maritain.

Maritain writes, "it belongs to the philosophy of nature to instruct us about virtue or "habitus" of art, Maritain writes, is not simply an "interior growth of spontaneous life," but has an intellectual character and involves cultivation and practice. Since Maritain wrote, abortion laws have been liberalized and same-sex marriage has been made lawful; this was not done by the will of the people as in a plebiscite, certainly not by the will of God, but rather by the will of appointed government jurists.
