These blogs cannot cover the many thousands of examples of historical falsehoods or omissions we found in our historical research – our books do that – but it explains how the men behind the curtain actually created fake history. Coming from a school teacher and a medical practitioner, it is an excellent work of history that hopefully could be taught in schools years from now, as the history of Belgium's atrocities in the Congo, is now a well accepted narrative of the downfalls of colonialism. As the late George Orwell wrote: . GerryDochertyisaformerheadteacherandauthorofseveralhistoricplays. So too in any objective sense is academic history. Does the research design, processes and methodologies, for example, conform with professional standards? It was the greatest heist of history that the world has ever known.
