This single location in Victoria: In its exploration of details, it avoids many of the standard tropes and instead looks toward a more historically-coherent series of explanations for the events of New Culture and the successes of the Left. O'Meara a pen-name, unsurprisingly seems to idolize Ancient Greece, but only has a superficial idealized "airbrushed" impression of what Ancient Greece, or the Athenian democracy was like.

That thinking is so backward as to be ridiculous in this day and age. Prodesrat
New Culture, New Right: It's quite sad that some Europeans even after the horrors of WWII still seem to retreat back into reactionary politics whenever the new either people, culture, or the market arrives on their shores.
