I'm currently working on book four, too, about a fifth of the book in. It helps that many of the ideas and plots are building on concepts introduced in the first novel but at the end of the day, there are just fewer names and places to keep track of this time .

HarperCollins outbid their competitor to sign Hunt for a three-book deal, 1

Nov 22, Karen rated it it was amazing Shelves: Though I do have some quibbles about something that comes up again in this second Jackelian book. As it is, it's good; but if Hunt could make it just a bit tighter, it could be really good.
