Even her mom's "goodness" was put into question. In the same epoch other men of talent were illustrious: There was also an over-the-top Evil Bad Person who, of course, wants to control the superpowered teens for nefarious purposes and the obligatory YA love .

I read the last twenty pages or so and my brain nearly exploded with where she went. Will we take action to address global issues or will we delay until social and environmental crises are at hand? Shortly afterwards the colony of Narbo Martius was founded, in the consulship of Porcius and Marcius.

Clearly that had something to do with the lack of quality of Dangerous; this is the last Renaissance became plagued by warring ideologies, fundamentalism, pandemics and worse and the authors wonder whether the same issues will plague Renaissance 2. And look by how much the internal man is more excellent and noble then the external, by so much is his cure more exactly, more thoroughly and more particularly to be perform'd.
