Today, despite the great success Jews enjoy in the United States, they still struggle with the constraints of America's black-white dichotomy. Tegenwoordig wonen nog maar iets meer dan honderd Asjkenaziem op het eiland. It has been acclaimed as the most comprehensive and penetrating work yet to have appeared in its field.

While Jews consistently sought acceptance as whites, their tendency to express a self-identity as Jews is evident. Herausgegeben von Ingeborg Baldauf und Bert G.

Grounded in the traditional texts yet accessible, this book shows how the author not only describes but explains the cultural meaning behind Jewish practices and traditions, this extraordinary book shows what is particular and what is universal about Jewish experiences of death, bereavement, mourning, and their aftermath.
