But the novelty wore off quickly, and the overdose of teen angst became overwhelming. I doubt it is what Brian had in mind, but I like to think that he sort of knew.

It's very captivating because you just want to know what will happen in the end.

It was released as a single 21st January This is only my second Levithan book the other was Nick and Norah's Infinite Playlist and I am already a big fan of his unique writing style. He has no clue of who was sending these pictures. This is a very unique read for me. In fact, Every You, Every Me wouldn't have suffered one bit if it didn't include any of the photographs.
