We eat the rough white bread. This is a type of travel journal; a first for me into this type of book. That part felt the most authentic to me. Tourists are those that flock to the shops of tat and visitors are those that seek an intellectual and visceral experience. I also really liked the last part when they were camping. Everything so far; but I haven't tread here earlier work. There is plenty to admire here: Cusk but I was unprepared for her unhappiness with the values of .
