A Borrowing of Bones (Mercy & Elvis Mysteries #1) by Paula Munier

What a treat this debut mystery novel from Paula Munier is. . . I loved this book and highly recommend it for everyone that enjoys thrillers and mysteries.

Viva Las Vengeance: A Murder Mystery Featuring Elvis Presley: Daniel Klein: Books His other mysteries and thrillers include Embryo and Beauty Sleep. I thoroughly enjoyed this third Elvis mystery novel by Daniel Klein.

Thrillers in Disguise | CrimeReads

A mystery thriller featuring Elvis Presley. On a warm summer night in , twelve-year-old Robbie Donner's life is changed forever. He encounters hate.

Also love the Elvis Cole/Joe Pike mysteries by Robert Crais, . "Parker's Southern California thrillers are in the league of Michael Connelly". . I finally got around to reading the first Harry Bosch novel and I really didn't like it.

A brilliant new crime novel from the beloved, bestselling, and himself as the authority on mysteries and thrillers" (Author A.J. Tata).

I read a few Charles Todd too, they were ok but a bit dry for me. I started with Little Scarlet which was the 9th of the series and set during the Watts riots of which I loved so much I immediately went to the first book of the series Devil in a Blue Dress adapted into a movie starring Denzel Washington; I haven't seen the film .

I enjoyed listening to all of the books in the Shane Scully series written by St. However, there's humor involved in their new relationship, as everyone from Mercy's grandmother to Troy's boss tries to push them. And if you ever need other ideas for a future Elvis novel, we can vouch for the colorful characters, beautiful locations and richly textured life offered via a plot taking place 'downunder'. Much thought also seems to have gone into the supporting characters.

Well, I do think Elvis had a strong moral center, imparted to him by his mother and lived in L. Long Beach. msgirl marked it as to-read Jan 05,
