Post Your ideas for ProZ. It is suggested that this concept gradually ceased to shape the sorts of characters associated with different genres and eventually came to determine only the style that was used, depending on the dramatic situation and social standing of the characters. In the sixties, some of his shows began to be called happenings and were contemplated with different eyes, although to most of the press and critics were still advertising antics.

literary works –the situations and subject matters rendered, the stylistic register and characterization, on one hand, and the communicative intent on the other– are shaped by the notion of decorum, which is itself shaped by the tradition and innovations characteristic of all esthetic products. Bernard Ewell has always been upfront and unflinching in his evaluations.
