I studied the Kabbala, Occultism and Theosophy obsessively for several years. For me, this book puts a lot of things into perspective. One person found this helpful.

What avenues of consciousness-raising are open to those of us who are drug-free? There are some teachings out there about eliminating desires and attachments not very popular with today's society to get the mind fine tuned, but the trap with that is that you would have the desire to eliminate desires!
