Such a tight rope she had to walk every single day. Return to Book Page. I had picked it up when it was free on Kindle. The first part went to fast in some places and I would have liked to know more about Roselind's story can be told today but what her mother had planned would be harder to pull off in this day and age. Vulnerable to accusations of witchcraft as soon as something goes wrong Lisa is also pitched against a greedy Midwife : Liza who tries to force her out of her cottage. She makes one mistake and the people turn against her suspecting witchcraft Tossinamonastery. Shannon rated it it was amazing Sep 04, The book follows Liza and the people of the village through a short time in the 's.
